Ultimate is played with a Frisbee instead of a traditional air-filled ball like most sports. The field is made up of a playing area and two end zones, similar to an American Football field, with two teams of seven that compete against one another. What really sets Ultimate aside is the culture that surrounds it. All players follow the golden rule, treat others how you would want to be treated. This is known as the Spirit of The Game and it runs deep in every Ultimate player. While still remaining competitive, Ultimate is a sport for all ages and skill levels that offers fun, exercise, and enjoyment. The sport of Ultimate has become popular because of its simplicity, competitiveness, and overall respect for the game and others around.	Foraging Club Years 7 to 13 Tor Andrews Meet at the Rabbit, Max 10 The purpose of the club is to learn about the abundance of wild food that can be foraged and used in many ways, from making fishing nets to delicious cordials, cakes and other dishes.
